WASHINGTON SAVINGS BANK STAFF MEMBERS DONATE WREATHS TO SUPPORT DRACUT LIBRARY AUCTION

Lowell, MA – November 30, 2007: Washington Savings Bank staff members recently donated their time and energy to construct decorative wreaths to support the Dracut Library Holiday Wreath Auction. The wreaths consisted of a variety of decorations that included wreaths with dollar bills and one wreath consisting entirely of 267 pieces of Lindt chocolate.

"Washington Savings Bank is proud to support the many good efforts of the Dracut Library and grateful to have staff members that are committed to working in and supporting their community", said Jim Hogan, CEO of Washington Savings Bank. "We would like to thank our staff members for their time and energy in decorating these wreaths for such a worthy cause."

The Dracut Moses Greeley Parker Memorial Library located at 28 Arlington Street in Dracut, MA is holding their Holiday Wreath Auction from December 1st through December 8th. Residents may view the wreaths and enter a bid in a silent auction during this time. Holiday festivities are planned for December 8th 10 am – 3 pm. More information can be found at the library's website dracutlibrary.org or by contacting the library at (978) 454-5474.
