TYNGSBOROUGH-DUNSTABLE ROTARY CLUB FUNDRAISER WINNER

LOWELL, August 27, 2008 – The Tyngsborough-Dunstable Rotary Club recently conducted a raffle with a prize consisting of an outing for 20 in a private luxury suite at the historic Holman Stadium in Nashua, NH. The date was for a Saturday August 23rd baseball game between the Nashua Pride and the Quebec Capitales.

Washington Savings Bank was a major sponsor of the event by selling tickets through their lobbies, website and radio advertisements. More information about the bank may be found at washingtonsavings.com.

The winner of the event was Jane Palmer, who resides in Wilmington, MA. In picking up her prize, Jane stated “ I love baseball and my 4 children with 10 grandchildren will love this!”

The Tyngsborough-Dunstable Rotary club meets Thursdays at 7:30 am in the Country View Diner on Middlesex Road in Tyngsborough, MA. The group seeks to improve their community and always welcomes new members. More information can be found at tdrotary.org.
